

HOUSING MARKET Report

Keeping you in touch with the housing market in 2008

2008 is a challenging year for the housebuilding industry, and keeping in touch with the twists and turns of the market is more important than ever.

A subscription to the monthly HOUSING MARKET REPORT is the ideal way of ensuring that you stay right up to date with the industry and market trends, allowing you to manage your business throughout the year.

Compiled and written by John Stewart, the leading market analyst and director of economics at the Home Builders Federation, each month HOUSING MARKET REPORT gives you:

- Authoritative analysis of the latest housing market trends
- The monthly HBF industry survey results of new home reservations, prices, incentives and more
- The latest economic analysis
- A round up of the latest market and housebuilding statistics, including HMR's exclusive quarterly regional affordability index
- Industry and market news analysis
- Special features on topics such as the housing market, housebuilding, land, planning, demographics and more
- A key executive summary

All for just £325 a year, or just £275 for members of the Home Builders Federation.

Subscribe now to ensure you and your business get the best information and analysis of the market to help you steer through the challenges ahead.
