

HBF Future Talent Conference

19&20 February 2020

A RESIDENTIAL EVENT

Sponsored by

Woodlands Event Centre, Wyboston Lakes Resort, Bedfordshire

EARLY BOOKING UNTIL 19 DECEMBER

The HBF Future Talent Conference 2020 is the HBF's main event each year to bring together, trainees, graduates and apprentices with ambition and aspiration to progress their careers within the home building industry.

This interactive conference programme aims to provide learning insights on the main issues and changes for the industry from a national perspective that will enhance the delegates' knowledge and understanding as they develop their careers.

The conference begins on day 1 with an inspirational keynote speech from Jack Parsons, CEO of the Big Youth Group & an expert panel, before a buffet dinner is served in the evening, offering delegates the chance to network with their colleagues. Day 2 begins with delegates assembled into smaller groups rotated around small interactive workshops for the entire day. The workshop topics will focus on key industry issues and include a set session dedicated to group project work, where the delegates will be asked to work together before presenting their findings during the final part of the day.

WORKSHOP TOPICS

*Four interactive workshops rotating simultaneously during the day, to include:
